Speculating Who Will be Judge. The situation in the contest of Judges Arnold and Shea, both republicans and Attorney S. B. Harvey, democrat for the appointment of judge of the police court, has developed increasing interest the past few days. Politicians on the inside assert that Representatives Bugbee and Kelley, democrats, each has been led to believe that if he supports Judge Shea, he will be appointed prosecuting attorney. If Judge Arnold should succeed himself, Representative Bugbee would undoubtedly be his own successor as town prosecutor. Democrats claim that party feeling demands that the two democratic representatives support Lawyer Harvey. port Lawyer Harvey.

Warden Bullard pointed out the advantage of a board of trade and showed that there was a legitimate field for its work here, more so now than ever before, and also how opportunities for getting industries have failed during the last year because there was no one to negotiate them. A sentiment expressed at the meetings was along the lines that the Business Men's association should be a subdivision of the Board of Trade, which has a wider scope in opportunities for doing good work. The next meeting of the Board of Trade is to be held on March 25, when the committee appointed will report.
